W. Beckwith.

This is a competitive trip. They are to race to see which ship will reach Palestine first. A ticket is given to each pupil. It is in the form of a button with a picture of the ship on which they will sail. The progress of the ships will be based on the attendance each Sunday and by the number of scholars brought in by each side and by offerings. The value of a new pupil should be 25 miles credited to the side that gets the new scholar. The sale which has the largest offerings each Sunday, 25 or 50 miles, and each scholar in attendance will count four miles. The winners in the trip will be given some soutenir or reward.
